Mr Garrison

Dear Sir

852

If you think it worth while I shall be glad to have you publish the accompanying letter, Perhaps there are those in America who would like to know something of us &c.

My wife begs to be remembered to you with great affection, She has always felt badly that it did not so come around that she could have seen you before she

My dear Mr. Norton
I have been thinking it worth while to state to you to have your interest in the Countess of Essex, who is there are those in America who
of us, & why wife says to be interested to see with great affection, she has always felt badly that it was not to come across that the end have been very long left Boston. ~~The~~ last B & F Reporter contains a very faithful account of our difficulties. Of course many things could not be told. The persecutions & sufferings endured by Miss King (that was) were they told (persecutions inflicted by the hand of her family & friends) would fill even a heathen with indignation. A more heroic young lady, America has not produced. She counted the cost from the beginning & therein lies the heroism. ^{of course, all} ^{sorts of things will} be said by those whom we are disappointed, but they are not to be heeded. We are happy here. I am hoping one of these days to spend some time in one of the German Universities for purposes of Scholarship.

I do not know where my beloved friend Nell is.

If he is in B - please tell him to write. It would be safer to direct to the care of the Office of the British & Foreign A. S. Society No 27 New Broad St, London Eng.

Very truly Yours

Wm. Allen
